Speculators Holding a Tight Grip on May Corn.

WHEAT PRICES LITTLE LOWER ereal Drops Half Cent for Deferred Months, While Nearby Offer-

OMAHA, March 2s, 1914

A crowd of big speculators at New York and Toronto, Canada, men who have made a killing in the stock and cotton markets at New York, now hold a tight grip on the May corn at Chicago. This big interest switched from the bear to the buil side of May corn recently at an opportune moment, and their heavy buying at a much lower level than that of the moment makes their position a most desirable one. They now have a handsome paper profit in every bushel they control. This line of May corn was accumulated through the house of Thompson & McKincon, and the holdings of the cotton crowd are now placed as high as 5,000,000 bushels. Whether these big speculators will be enabled to turn their paper profits into real money is a question uppermost in the minds of many grain men of the west, and especially those who have put out short lines of considerable size and which now show a loss.

message was received from Galveston A message was received from Galveston, Tex., saying that a cargo of Argentine corn had arrived there and that one compartment of the vessel was of new crop corn. There was an almost complete halt in the cash demand at Chicago, sales amounting to only 55,000 bushels. There were liberal offerings of Argentine corn at the eastern seaboard, as well as at gulf ports, and the lowest price of the season was asked, 55 cents, New York, for June and July shipment. and July shipment.

Although setbacks in the price of wheat were at no time severe, the bears had the advantage throughout Nearly without exception, crop advices proved optimistic. By some experts, the snowfall in the spring wheat belt was declared a notable benefit as virtually insuring a fine start for the season whereas a dry weather handicap was previously the outlook.

Good resting orders to purchase on any radical break gave wheat at times an appearance of being stubborn. The main basis for support was a statement that high winds had blown wheat out of light soils in a limited area of western Kansas. There was news also that Germany had become an eager buyer of cargoes from Australia, and that world's shipments for the week promised to be small.

Free and lower priced offers of new Argentine corn to arrive kept the corn market on the downgrade. One of the leading bull houses soid steadily all day, and the weakness was intensified by selling pressure from a number of bears who were trying to offset recent losses on the abort side. It was confirmed that on the short side. It was confirmed that 3,000 bushels of an Argentine carge at Galveston was from the new crop, and there was an unfounded rumor that a full shipload of new Argentine corn had arrived in New Orleans. Oats felt the depression of other cereals. Signs that seeding would be general in Illinois within ten days had a further bearish effect.

Packers waited until hearly 10 o'clock before they even made a bid, but when they did start out their offers were fully 10c lower, and in some cases the first bids on good krutes tooked to be even worse than that. Saleamen had priced their holdings at steady figures. and as a result the market dragged for a while before anything sold, but it seen became evident that buyers had the up-per hand, and while actual trading did not begin until long after 10 o'clock, the supply finally started to move slowly at prices that were right around a dime lower. After a few of the strings had been sold trade became a little more lively, but the movement was far from lively, but the movement was far from active at any time.

The market remained practically unchanged throughout, and in the end the built of the supply moved at a 16c decline. Owing to the draggy tendency of the trade it was after midday before any kind of a clearance was made. Bulk of the sales was made at $5.00% 50, the latter price being the top, although one little bunch of twelve head sold early at $5.5%.

Is Not Severe.

NEW YORK, March M.-Confidence of NEW YORK, March 25.—Confidence of the buils was shaken by the bearish news of today. Sentiment swung toward the short side and a few stocks directly affected by the day's developments were sent tumbing. But the list as a whole offered stubborn resistance. Speculative selling fatled to provoke widespread liquidation and, although the general movement was downward, the average loss was not severe. ss was not severe. loss was not severe.

Fitisburgh. Cincinnati, Chicago and St. Louis out the dividends on the common and preferred. The common stock broke several points at a time to 70, a drop of 13 points from the opening. Later it recovered part of its loss. Fennsylvania, whose returns on its holdings of the stock are reduced at the rate of nearly $100,000 a year, was hammered down about I points. Atchison weakened on the exceptionally poor statement for February. Gross earnings declined $1,152,000 and operating income $86,000. For eight months of the fiscal year Atchison's decrease in operating income is $2,802,000. Northern Pacific's February carnings also were bearish. Gross decrease was given as $380,000 and net as $300,000. Industrial stocks fared scarcely better in the day's developments. The weekly reviews by steel trade authorities were distinctly pessimistic. Buying at present was represented as extremely light and it was said that unless conditions improve soon—of which no indications are discernible—many mills will be compelled to close or curtail operations.
